53. Jude's In The News

United Nations published an article written by Jude Hall, CEO. Jude, on the emotional, social, and psychological impact of cancer on children.

Tours of Jude published an article by Jude Hall, CEO. Jude, on the emotional and psychological impact of cancer on children.

Stories of Hope

Persevering in 2020... Jude’s Hope Biweekly Newsletter is one of the most read in the world. Jude's Hope Newsletter is an electronic publication for children and young adults, parents, and professionals who work with childhood cancer patients.

Perseverance is the key to success, and Jude's Hope Newsletter is no exception. The newsletter features success stories, interviews with children and their families, and tips for coping with childhood cancer.

According to Jude’s Hope Newsletter, there are over 400,000 children and young adults who are battling cancer worldwide. Jude's Hope Newsletter is a valuable resource for parents and professionals who work with childhood cancer patients.

New more than ever, our cancer warriors need your help to support their battle against childhood cancer.